Foreword

In this COLONEL we have endeavored to show you reflections of days gone by. When our activities at Fleming are but memories, it is our hope that the '56 COLONEL will turn your thoughts back to the familiar scenes of which you have been a part.

In classes, clubs, athletics, student activities, and the various phases of school life at Fleming . . . "You Were There."

Dedication

ORVAL S. GARBER

Through his devotion, guidance, and patient understanding, he has secured a special place in the hearts of Fleming students. In addition to being an excellent teacher, he has been a true friend. His smile and admirable character have definitely become instilled in the spirit of Fleming High School. With the remembrance of his inspiration to us, we gratefully dedicate the '56 COLONEL to Mr. Garber.

*Good luck always

There is no better feeling than that of belonging. The pride of belonging where the ideals are noble and fine is a reward within itself. No one can spend five years at Fleming without realizing that he has inherited that intangible spirit of loyalty and courage.

The Class of '56 is about to make its departure from Fleming. Each graduate leaves realizing that his life has been enriched because he was made to feel a part of Fleming. The training given by the faculty and the associations with fellow students have equipped the class for future years of happiness and endeavor.

The Class of '56 shall always cherish the memories of Fleming because part of us will always belong there.

The Junior Class began its year's activities entering a float in the Home-Coming Parade, on which several couples portrayed scenes of the traditional Junior-Senior Prom.

During the year the Class of '57 sponsored several hops, including one honoring the basketball team.

To climax the year's activities, the Juniors honored the Seniors with the annual Junior-Senior Prom.

The Coaches

William Fleming is fortunate to have such a wonderful coaching staff. This season proved to be more challenging for them than in the past, however, since it marked the beginning of Group I competition for the Colonels.

Coach Fred Smith is a man respected by everyone in Virginia who knows high school sports. Being our head coach is a difficult job—harder than almost any other at Fleming—but he seems to enjoy it.

Coach Con Davis is a tremendous help in Fleming's athletic program. He has a keen mind in football as well as other sports. He is always working hard to help the teams over the tight spots.

Coach Kenneth French is a valuable member of Fleming's coaching staff. His knowledge of wrestling and football tactics and his instruction in track have been very helpful in the two years that he has been here.

We are very proud of our new coach, Jimmy Moore, who has proved himself very efficient in coaching basketball. We think that his ability will pay big dividends for the Fleming cagers.

Another one of our new coaches is George White, who has given liberally of his spare time and effort to help the boys. He has been a great help in Fleming's sports program.

Varsity Football

Fleming's stepping up into Group I for the first year presented many difficulties. First of all the Colonels were caught in a building period, having come back from the 1954 championship team with only three regular players. Fleming's team was respected even though it was not too successful in the won-and-lost column.

On August 25, the boys started a conditioning period. With the cooperation of the coaches, the team worked very hard to develop potential team power and endurance, as well as individual self-control.

In the first game of the season, the Colonels beat a scrappy Covington team. The game was close all the way. Covington threatened in the last minute, but our defense held until the final gun. Fleming won by a score of 14-7.

In the next game we were disappointed, as we were defeated by a powerful E. C. Glass team that lost only two of its lettermen of last year. The Fleming team put up a good fight but was overcome by a stronger team.

In the cross-town rivalry with Jefferson, Fleming went out with the ever-present fear of a larger school. The Colonels played hard but to no avail. They were defeated by a fiery team.

The game with Andrew Lewis turned out to be a surprise to everyone. The Colonels, who were rated the underdogs by all of the sports writers, beat the highly favored Andrew Lewis team 20-13.

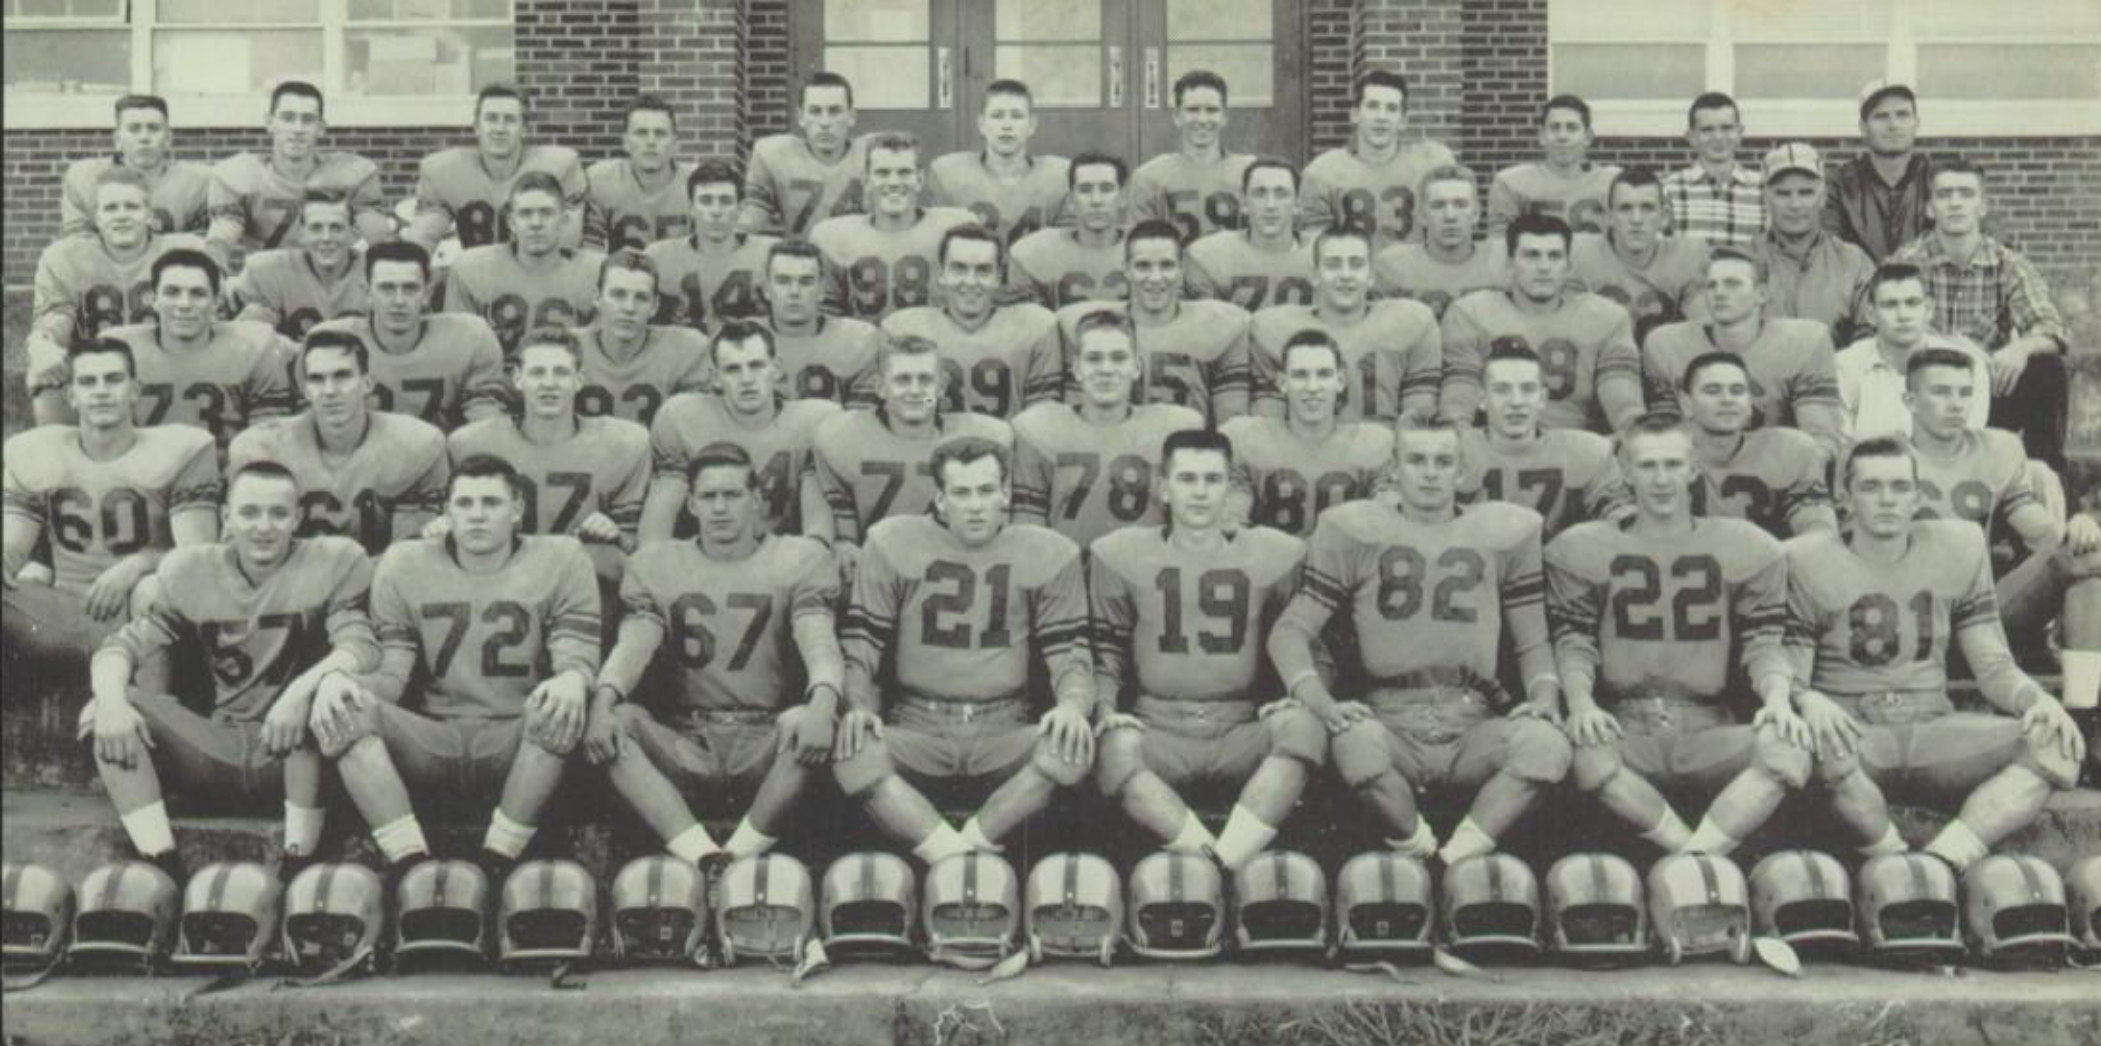

Fleming lost to a scrappy Martinsville team by a score of 13-12. This game was hard fought and one in which fumbles were very costly.

Prospects for the 1956 season are much brighter with the return of eighteen lettermen.

Basketball Schedule

The Fleming Cagers became Group I contenders for the '55-'56 season. The first task for the new coach, Jimmy Moore, was to develop co-ordination between the old and new players. These included the five returning lettermen and the newcomers from the Junior Varsity. Led by Co-Captains Jack Morey and Leroy Ferris, the team pushed on to a 6-13 record.

The Colonels were handicapped by lack of height, but they could hit from the outside and had the speed and reflexes to drive inside for lay-ups. When the first team needed a rest, the reserves were ready to go. This year's Varsity was a well-rounded squad.

The team, as well as students, showed very fine sportsmanship during the season. The Pep Band, along with the student body, added spirit and support.

The 1956 squad will be remembered for a long time to come because of their ability, although the lack of height shadowed them. The importance of the game was not the score but the consistent efforts of the players.

Wrestling Team

Mr. French, beginning his first year as head coach of the Fleming wrestlers, was confronted with several positions to fill for the 1956 season. With seven regulars missing from the 1955 team, including one state champion, Coach French had his work cut out for him.

The nucleus for this year's team included the following experienced wrestlers: Co Captain Bob Bowman, Co-Captain Billy Noel, Mike Ruddo, Herbert Bowling, Bob Aveson, Bill Aveson, Kenneth Brammer, Ted Rowe, and Gibby Wingfield.

Fleming enjoyed a very successful season this year, losing only to very strong Granby, Warwick, and Norview teams.

Track-1955

Last year the Fleming Trackmen had one of the best teams in its history. During the regular season Fleming was defeated only three times. After losing their first match to Jefferson, Fleming squeezed through the meet with Andrew Lewis by a narrow margin and breezed through Byrd and Radford until they were stopped at the City-County Meet. The Colonels lost to E. C. Glass after they waltzed off with the District Six Championship at Blacksburg.

Not only did the Colonels win the District Six title for the third straight year, but also walked off with the Group II State Title at Charlottesville. Dean Price and Don Radford placed first in the discus and pole vault respectively. Don holds the State Group II record for the pole vault at 11 1/2 feet. Bob Bowman came in second in the mile.

The Colonelettes

1—Blue Volleyball team League champions. 2— That's my ball. 3—Attendants on 1956 May Court: G. Brillhart, G. Ferguson, P. Chisom, P. Ballard, T. Trout, C. Johnson, C. Hancock. 4—Is it a basket? 5—Junior and Senior attendants on the 1956 May Court: P. McGuire, J. Brillhart, S. Radford, J. Ferris, S. Black, N. Albaugh, K. Albaugh, M. Deyerle, C. Wood. 6—G. A. A. Potluck supper. 7—Gold Volleyball team. 8—Not high enough! 9—Spirit, Sandra McCue; Queen, Loretta McKinney; and Maid-of-honor, Judy King, of the 1956 May Court.

Later, preparing for May Day, many of the girls picked up their skirts and pointed their toes, tripping the light fantastic.

Following May Day, softball filled the schedule, bringing a full share of jammed fingers, bruises, and skinned legs.

Points have piled up and many girls have earned the necessary number for numerals, letters, stars, and bars, with four seniors even earning the coveted silver medals.

Girls' sports this year have been fun to the many active participants.

The Colonelettes

1—G. A. A. officers: B. Hambrick, J. Sink, L. McKinney, J. Smith, P. Calahan. 2—The G. A. A. Home-Coming float. 3—Blue Basketball team. 4—M. Deyerle, Queen Barbara Thompson, D. Sanders, B. Shufflebarger. 5—Court of the May Dance of 1955. 6—Gym class basketball. 7—Senior medal winners: C. Pedigo, C. Rakes, L. McKinney, R. Townsend. 8—G. A. A. sponsors: Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Boyd. 9—Come to Connie!

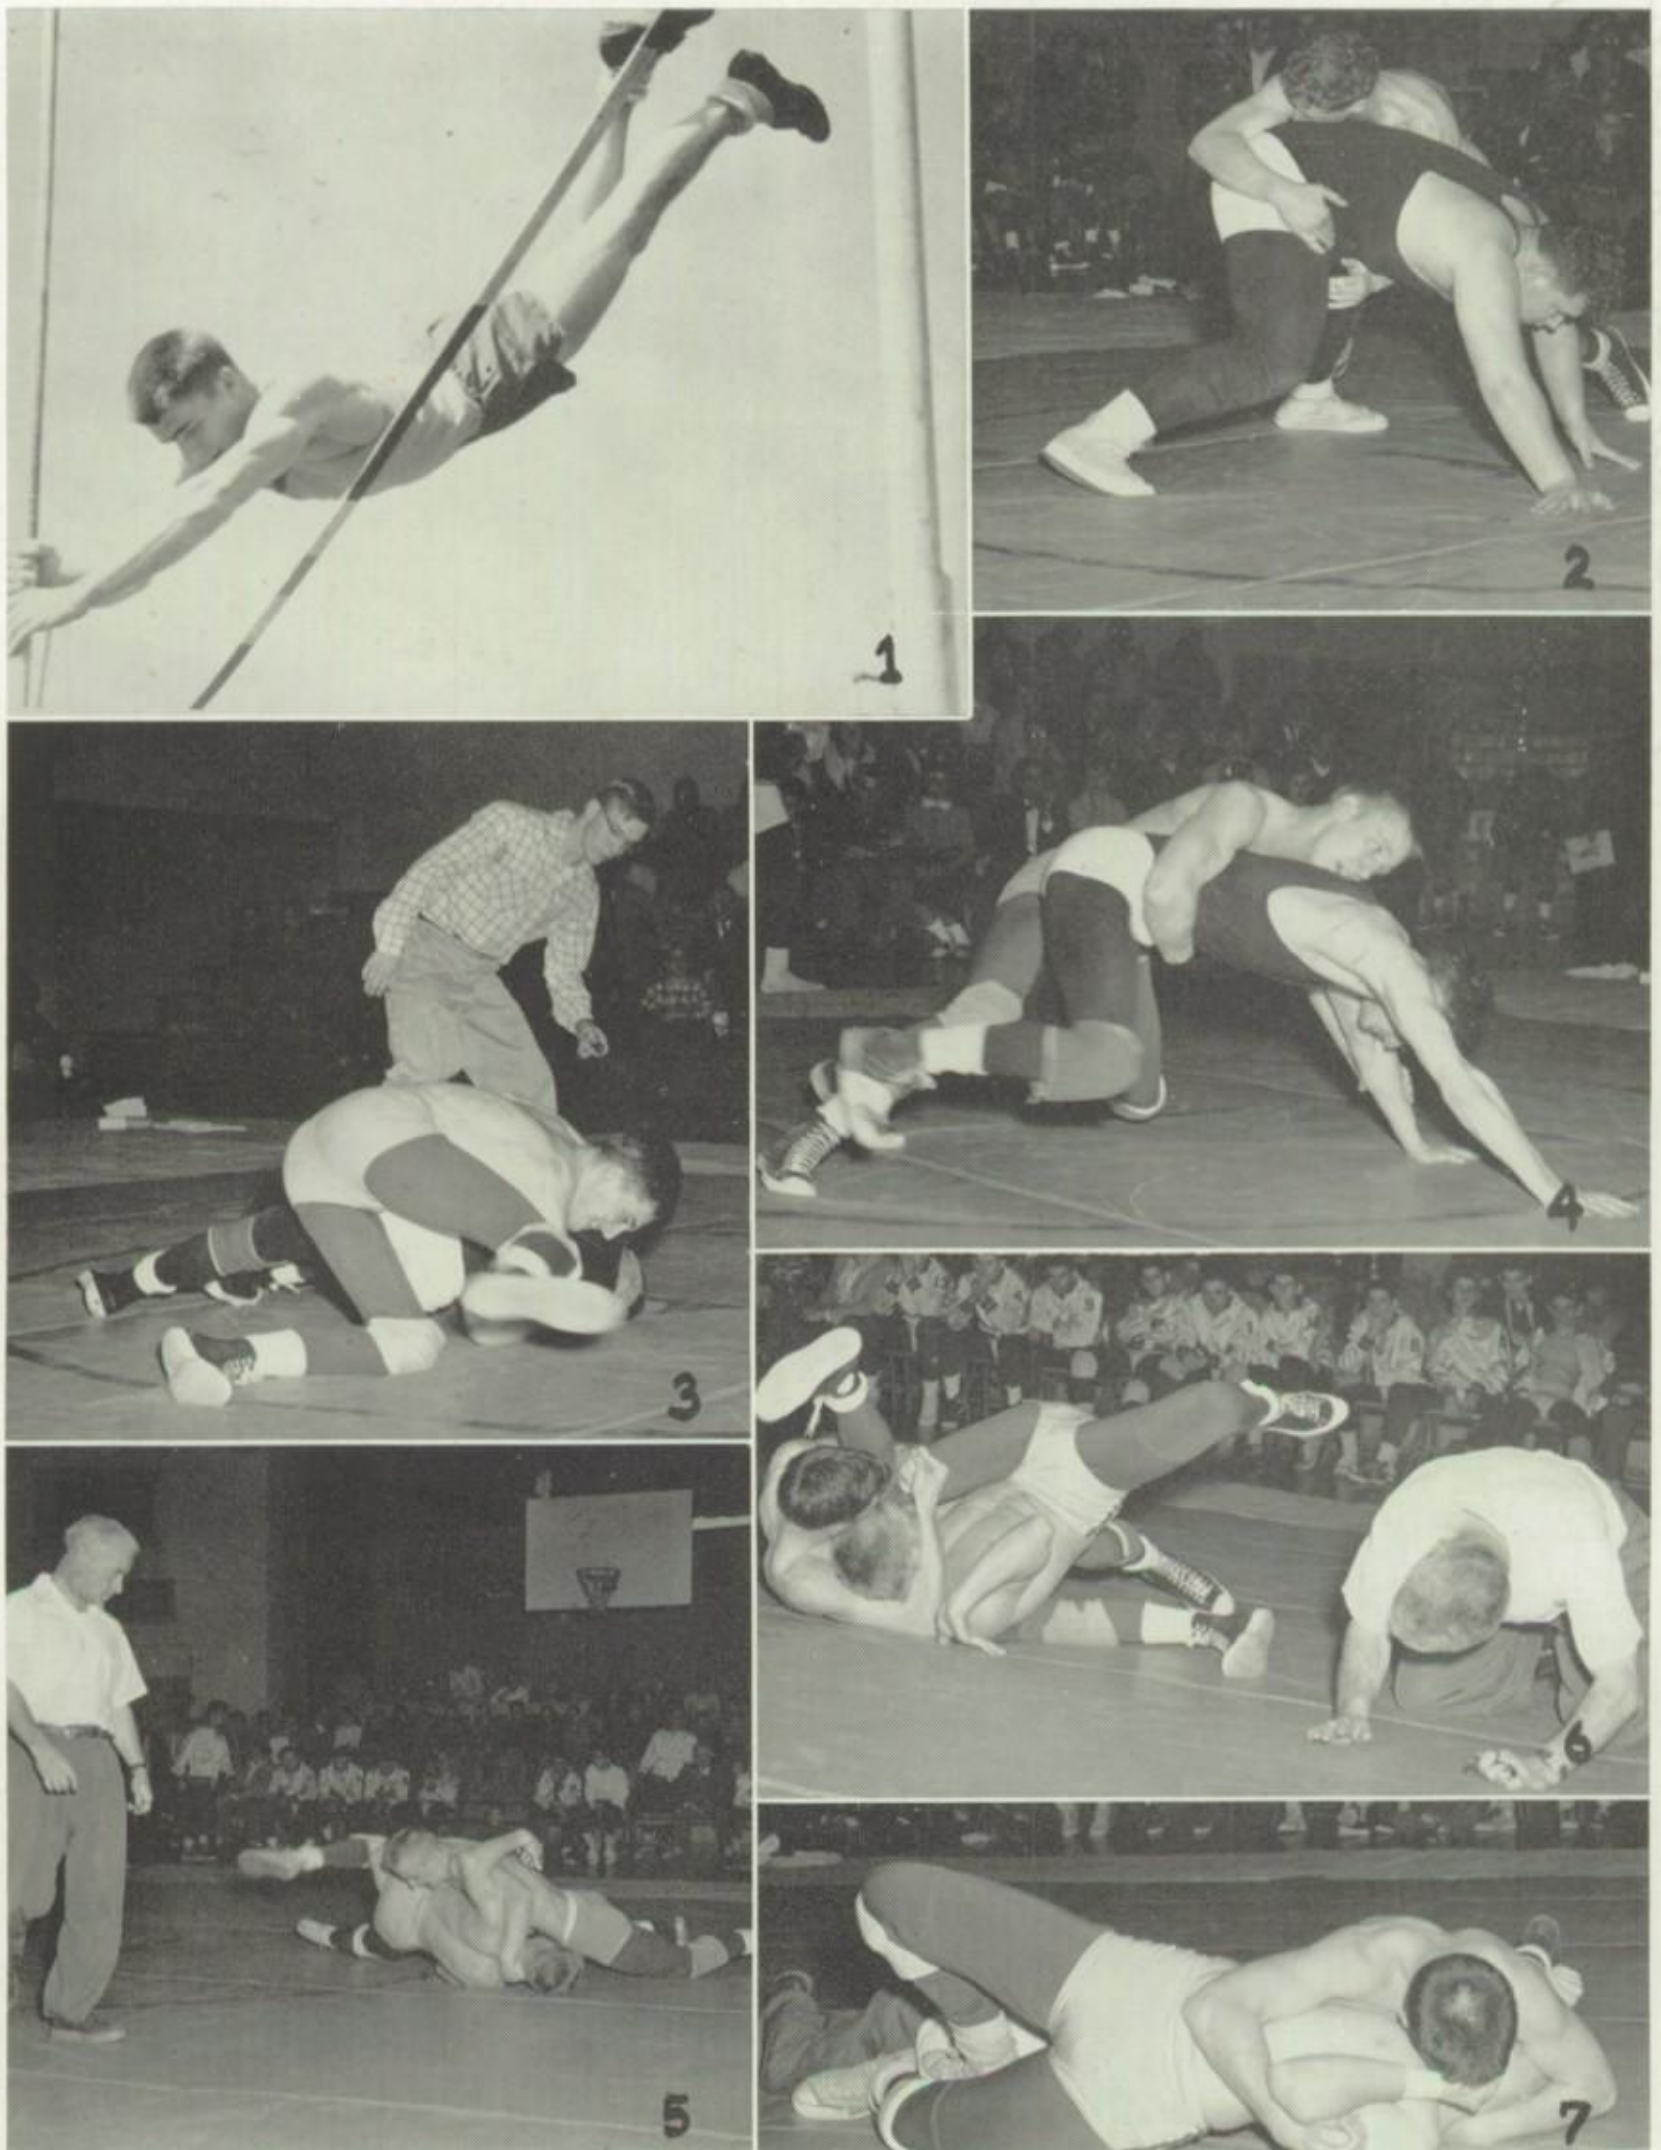

Girls' gym classes have had a very good year. Starting off with exercises proved the girls have more muscles than they ever use.

Then into volleyball—and a good season it was. Two teams were picked for entry into the league and the Blue Team, composed entirely of seniors, came out with the championship and the much coveted trophy.

Basketball was fun—even playing the “fruit basket—turn over” kind with a full team on each half of the floor.

A bit of tumbling just for fun and a try at paddle badminton followed.

Sports Snapshots

1—Radford sets state record for pole vault in 1955 at 12' 6". 2—Whitmore struggles with his man. 3—Bowman goes for a pin. 4—Noel tries to get his man. 5—"Chip" gets his man. 6—Aveson gets cradle on his man. 7—A near pin for Aveson.

Activities

Home-

This year, following tradition, the cheerleaders were in charge of Home-Coming with the assistance of the S. C. A. The cooperation of the students and faculty made this Home-Coming a spectacular one.

The activities started October 20, with a bonfire on the front lawn. Here the pep and spirit of Flemingites were more than evident as the combination of their voices rose over the flames.

The arrival of the Big Day found many early birds up at six o'clock decorating club floats. Each organization sponsored a float with a theme corresponding to the name of the club.

1—Ruth Townsend and Jack Morey as Colonel William Fleming. 2—Beta and Art club floats. 3—A pep session around the bonfire. 4—Our Home-Coming Queen, Karin Hauck. 5—Kim and Kay Stewart lead the procession with a banner. 6—Bob Aveson coming through as Donna O'Brien watches. 7—The Varsity Cheerleading Squad portrays the "line-up." 8—The Home-Coming Queen and her Court.

A pep assembly was held in the gym. The parade downtown followed in all its pomp and color. The Senior Class elected Fleming's German exchange student, Karin Hauck, Queen, and June Ferris, maid of honor.

Representing the Junior Class were Kaye Albaugh and Judy King; tenth grade, Carolyn Johnson and Gloria Lawrence; ninth grade, Alice Updike and Judy Edwards; eighth grade, Gail Ferguson and Judy Holliday.

After an exciting game with Martinsville, a hop honoring the alumni was held in the gym.

Another Home-Coming becomes a pleasant memory.

The Annual Staff has endeavored to publish for you a bigger and better yearbook than ever before. The staff hopes that it has met the expectations of the student body in producing an annual that will be a treasured possession this year and in the years to come.

Publishing the COLONEL requires diligent and constant effort. Advertisement solicitation, subscription drive, picture taking, and compiling of copy are all part of the publication. Of course, there are moments of fun, too.

Now, as the staff relaxes and enjoys the annual, it hopes you will enjoy it also. Look at it, read it, cherish it—today and in the days ahead.

The Student Cooperative Association is the co-ordinator of all school activities. Every student is a member. The working body of the organization is composed of the officers elected by the student body plus home room representatives and the club presidents.

The council's schedule this year was a heavy one, which included a program to promote good citizenship, school pride, and better relations between the school and community. Among other activities, the council had a dinner meeting, conducted workshops at the District and the State S. C. A. Conventions, sponsored the Christmas baskets, a monthly assembly, and the Spring Formal.

The S. C. A. has received the Banner Award for the past eleven years.

Beta Club

Plans for Beta Club activities for 1955-56 were made during a dinner at Dixie Caverns Restaurant in November.

Requirements for membership in the Beta Club include sound character, leadership ability, and scholastic achievement. This year thirty-five juniors and seniors received bids and were initiated at a supper party held February 11.

At three games, approximately 2,250 football programs were sold by members of the club. The profit from this project was used for a hundred-dollar scholarship which was given to Bobby Pirrung, a former Beta Club member.

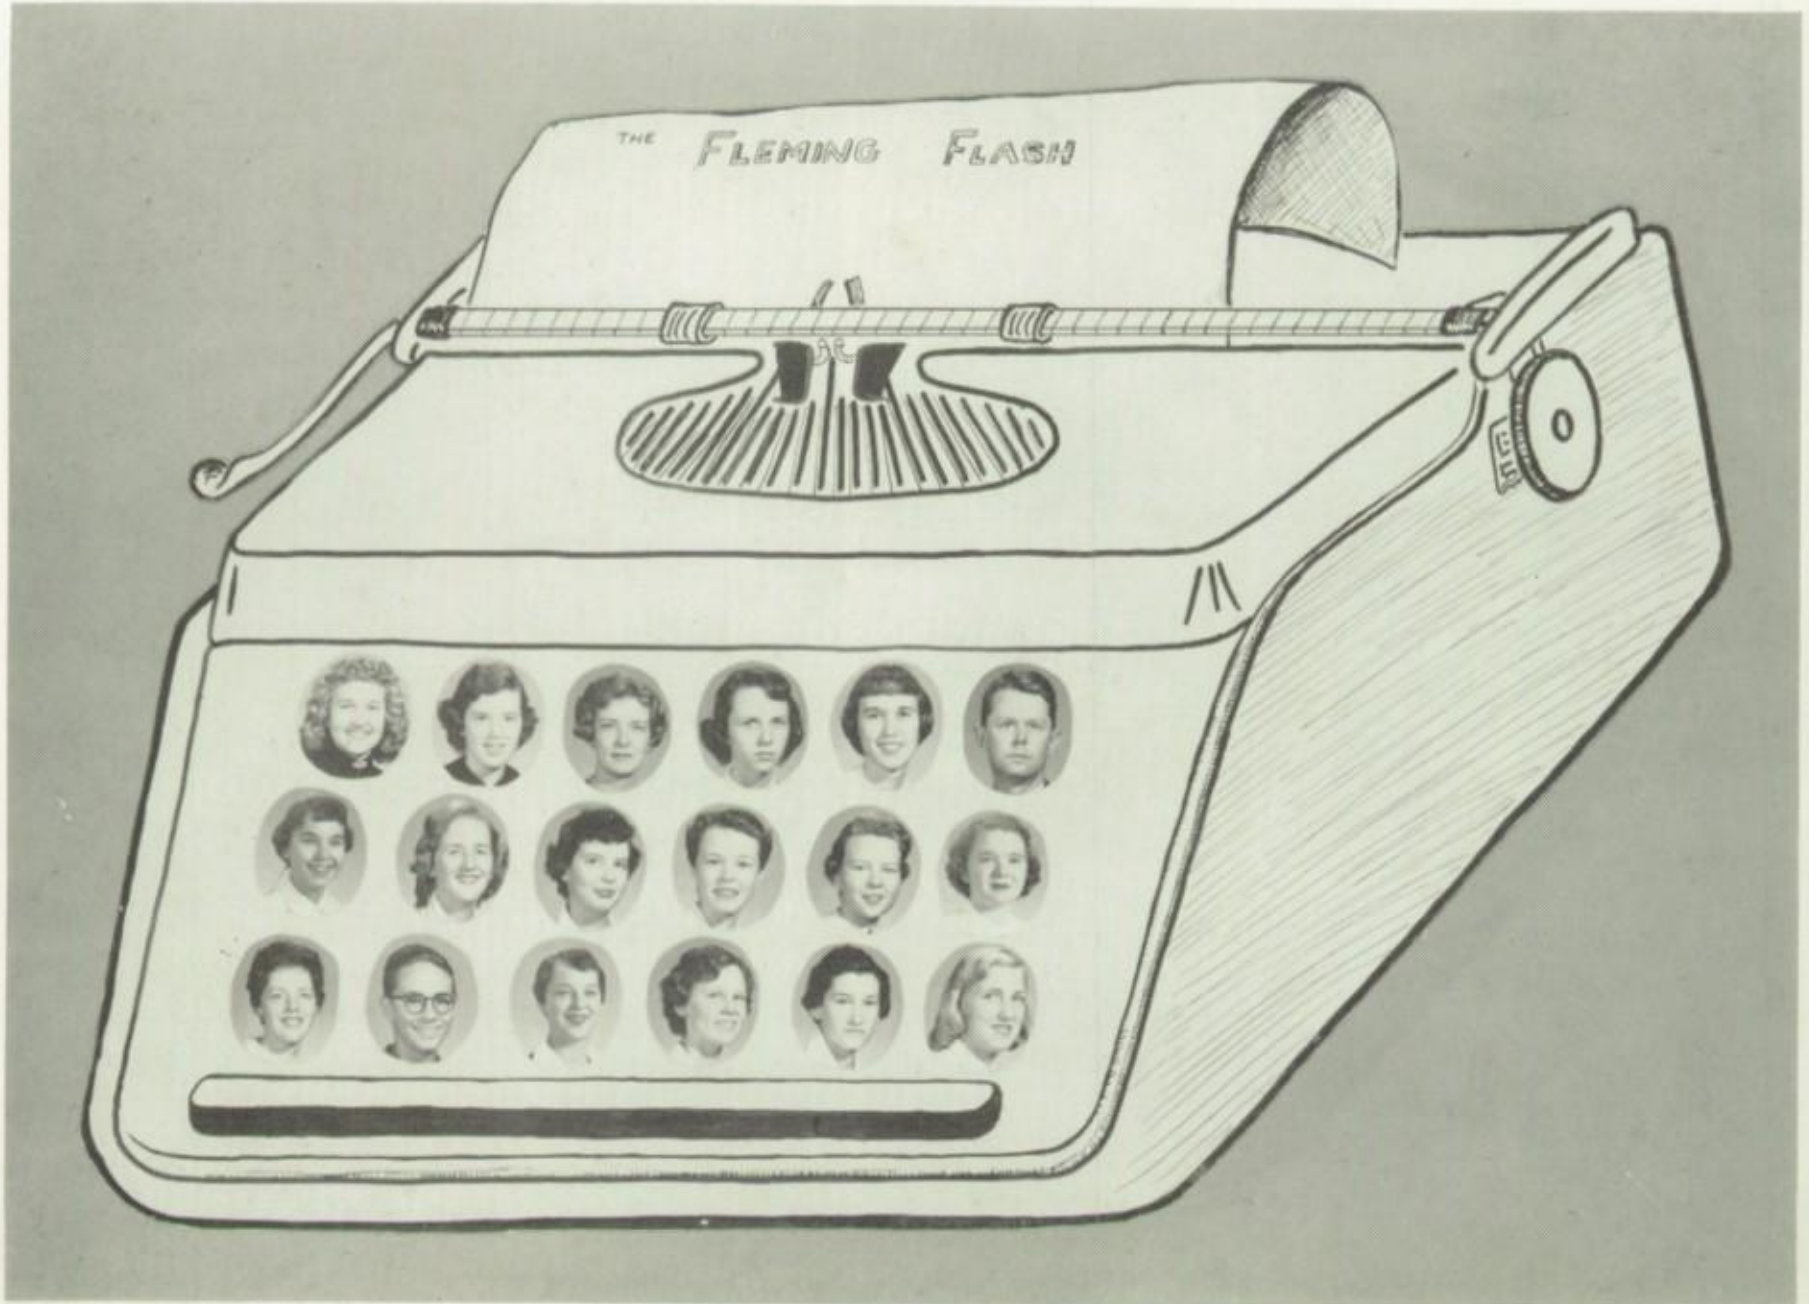

Representatives from the club attended the State Convention in Richmond.

The Flash is a weekly paper published by the journalism class. In addition to the thirty-six regular issues, an extra paper was published at Christmas, and a Senior Issue was printed in May with the aid of the Senior Class.

Four representatives from the staff attended the Southern Interscholastic Press Association at Washington and Lee University. The 1955 Flash won a first place award among the mimeographed papers.

The Co-Editors extend their thanks to the student body for their support of the Flash.

Following the election of the home room representatives, the Fleming Red Cross waged a very successful enrollment drive. All home rooms exceeded their goals of $1.00.

Before the Christmas holidays, the club filled thirty-five stockings for patients at the Veterans Administration and collected 280 cakes of soap to fill sunshine baskets for patients at Catawba Sanatorium.

Bettie Lou Stubbs and Jimmy Wood were elected representatives to the City Red Cross Council, of which Carolyn Rakes was president.

Other activities included presenting a program at the Veterans Hospital, touring the Blood Bank, and entering a float in the Home-Coming Parade.

Several members worked in the Red Cross office after school or on Saturdays.

Plans for the coming year were made while the Cabinet spent a sleepless week end at Camp Kiwanianna. The first of the year's activities was a reception for the new members. In October the Recognition Service was held at the Huntington Court Methodist Church. "White Christmas" was chosen as the play given with the Hi-Y for the assembly at Christmas. A special party was given for our orphans at which time they received gifts from each Y-Teen.

The theme of the annual Christmas Dance was the "Snowflake Ball" over which Mary Lee Deyerle reigned as Snow Queen. The new year was begun with a slumber party at the Y.W.C.A. The spring activities began with a half-day conference at Oakland Baptist Church with "Ladder of Success" as its main thought. The Hi-Y and Y-Teen held the "Holy Week" services again this year. The remaining activities consisted of a talent-fashion show and the mother-daughter banquet, when the officers for the coming year were announced. This year has been a most successful one and everyone has enjoyed working with Mrs. Mitchell.

The Junior Y-Teens consists of 140 eighth and ninth grade girls. Mrs. Wilkerson, the sponsor, guided the club in a most successful year.

The Cabinet started the year by spending a week end in September at Camp Kiwanianna, planning the activities for the year. The social affairs began with the annual Reception in the fall, which started the membership drive, and closed in May with the Mother-Daughter Banquet. Among the events were the Recognition Service, entering a float in the Home-Coming Parade, a slumber party, a half-day conference, and a Fashion Show.

The Senior Hi-Y Club had an enrollment of fifty-two members this year. Monthly meetings were held at the Y. M. C. A.

The main project was assisting the D. A. R. in caring for Colonel William Fleming's grave. At Christmastime, the club members helped deliver Christmas baskets to the needy. The club also cooperated with the Y-Teens in sponsoring the Christmas Dance. The club entered teams in the Hi-Y swimming and basketball meets.

The Junior Hi-Y Club had a membership of thirty Eighth and Ninth Graders. Regular monthly meetings were held at the Y. M. C. A. After the worship service, the members participated in various athletic activities such as swimming and basketball. The club entered a basketball team in the Y. M. C. A. Junior League.

The meetings and activities were carried out in keeping with the purpose of the club: "To strengthen our bodies, develop our minds, worship God, and work together for a finer community and a better world."

The year's activities were brought to a close with an outing.

The band had a membership of seventy-nine, including seven majorettes. The members attended all home football games and several out-of-town games. They took part in the Shrine Bowl Parade, the Home-Coming Parade, and the Christmas Parade. In October, the band traveled to Bristol to participate in the annual Southeastern Band Festival.

The choir and band gave a joint Christmas program for the school and community.

Eleven of the members—Pat Lilly, Ronnie Howell, Bob Miller, Janet Musselman, Lowell Logwood, Carroll Logwood, Bob Fugate, Sonia Russell, Dick Morey, Adrian Willis, and Harold Bray—represented Fleming at the All-State Band which was held in Norton. The Sixth Annual Spring Concert was held March 9. On April 30, the band attended a mock Democratic Convention at Lexington.

The band received an "Excellent" rating at the District Band Festival.

Fleming's Pep Band has been in existence only three years; however, from its busy schedule one can see that it adds life and color to the activities.

The Band traveled to Covington for the first football game of the season. It played at two Junior Varsity home games, at all of the pep sessions in assemblies, and at the Home-Coming bonfire.

The band was quite active during basketball season as it played at all of the home games and at several out-of-town games. The spring schedule included several performances at local schools.

The band members are indebted to their many friends and fans who were kind enough to furnish them transportation throughout the year.

The majorettes added another trophy to Fleming's large collection when they returned from the Southeastern Band Festival with the coveted trophy for being the most outstanding group of majorettes.

They, along with the band, participated in the Shrine Bowl Parade, led the Home-Coming and Christmas Parades, and took part in a parade at Lexington.

In addition to high stepping, the majorettes enjoyed during the year a hamburger fry, a bake sale, several pre-game suppers, a Thanksgiving, a Christmas, and a Swimming Party.

The Varsity Club is composed of boys who have lettered in one or more of the major sports. Each sport is represented by a committee of four members who determine the policies and membership of that sport.

The qualifications for membership into the club are determined by the members.

The constitution is approved by the members and the proper school officials.

The purpose of the Varsity Club is to promote better understanding between the school and the Athletic Department, and to further the ideals of good sportsmanship through the school.

For the first time in the history of the G. A. A. four girls won silver medals for earning a total of a thousand points.

The Club sponsored a football hop, a pot-luck supper, a Dutchtreat supper, two league volleyball teams, and one league basketball team. The Blue Team won the first place trophy in volleyball which was the first time for a Fleming girls' team to win this honor in league competition.

Meetings have been few because of the heavy schedule, but the club has managed to let Fleming know that it is still active.

To climax the year, the G. A. A. and the F. H. A. girls sponsored May Day.

The choir, under the able direction of Mrs. Webb, has been very busy this year with many activities.

The choir gave programs for various schools, the P. T. A., and took part each month in recording for Young Roanoke Sings.

At Christmas, the Fleming Choir took part in a Christmas program given at Jefferson for the general public. A Christmas program was also given at Fleming for the Williamson Road area.

The Senior Masque of '56 began the year with a large membership.

Promoting a greater interest in dramatics was the main purpose of the club. The constitution was revised. The programs were centered around dramatics in order to stimulate a greater understanding of the subject.

As the year progressed and as plays were produced, the Senior Masque backed each performance with its attendance, enthusiasm, and participation.

The club closed its season with a social held at Longwood in Salem.

The Junior Masque, consisting of students of the Ninth Grade, was led in a most successful year by Mr. Dean Egge. The purpose of this organization was to promote and encourage dramatic interests among its members.

During the meetings the group had informal discussions on dramatics, plays, movies, poems, pantomimes and other subjects of interest.

The main activities included a very successful bake sale and the planning of two plays in which the various members participated.

A spring outing climaxed the year's activities.

Season 1956 opened for the National Thespians when President Rex Maugans read the names of twenty-six new members in the morning assembly. Act I brought "Arsenic and Old Lace" with two full houses. Then came the intermission with a lovely party, hayride, and bonfire at the farm of Carolyn Rakes.

Act II, Scene I, brought the highly successful Christmas Assembly and TV play "The Other Wise Man." Then came festival time with its challenge of Group I competition. Shaw's "The Man of Destiny" was chosen with the hopes for a bid to finals at Charlottesville.

It can be said at the end of this wonderful season that everyone tried to "act well his part."

Students tapped every source for material on Democracy, and "The Voice of Democracy" contest was on! When Becky Blevins and Ruth Townsend won, we became city champions for the third consecutive year!

As we prepared for the American Legion Contest, we had high hopes of carrying Fleming's banner into another national sectional contest, and our hopes began to be realized when Ruth Townsend became city champion and entered state competition.

Curtain Time

1—The Thespians and Senior Masque teamed together to score with the fall production of "Arsenic and Old Lace." The backstage crews drew praise for the excellent set, as did the actors for their performance. In this picture the dear, deadly, old ladies, Jill Edwards and Mary M. Doyle, are about to add Algie Adams to their evergrowing list of victims. Frank Gisiner looks on in amazement. 2—Mrs. "D" poses in the director's chair, presented to her by the dramatic students for Christmas. 3—Before adjourning for the summer, members of the "Two Gentlemen and Verona" cast hold an impromptu rehearsal.

Command Performance

OUTSTANDING PLAYS OF THE SEASON

1—Becky Blevins narrates as Jimmy Rector, Ronnie Reid, Harvey Creasy, Helene Cooper, and Frank Gisiner do a top-notch job in "The Other Wise Man." 2—A scene from "Man of Destiny" which took distinguished honors in state competition with Ronnie Reid in the lead role of Napoleon. Members of the cast are: Ronnie Reid, Helene Cooper, Rex Maugans, and Jerry Keaton. 3—Act III of "Arsenic"—Shown here are (left to right) Helene Cooper, Gary Lee, Frank Gisiner, Jill Edwards, and Mary M. Doyle.

"Ray, Rah for Fleming" was the call of these thirteen rootin', tootin' gals. The squad practiced very hard during the summer and was ready to roll in their new gold and blue skirts in September. The cooperation of both squads and the student body made the bonfire, parade, and Home-Coming a big success. Ending the football season with a trip to South Norfolk, the girls were ready within a few weeks for basketball. During this season the squad shared many trips and memories with the players. It was fun yelling for such a hard-fighting, appreciative team.

The squad is grateful to Miss Morris and Mary Lee for their leadership and cooperation.

Yes, these are Fleming's Junior Cheerleaders who practiced hard under the capable leadership of Coach Edwards during the summer and were full of pep and steam when school opened. Selling stickers and shakeroos to create enthusiasm and school spirit was fun.

The Junior squad participated in Home-Coming by planning the bonfire and by proudly yelling with the Senior squad in the stadium.

Soon football season became history and the girls spent many exciting moments cheering the Junior Varsity Cagers. The squad made its first appearance in their new skirts at the Halifax game.

The squad would like to express its appreciation to the teams, students, Pop Band, Senior Squad, Phyllis, and its unselfish, capable sponsor, Miss Morris.

The third year of the F. T. A. at William Fleming was a busy one. The enrollment was larger than in past years, which was proof of a growing interest in the teaching profession.

Members participated in city F. T. A. meetings and had a large representation at the S&W Dutch treat dinner.

Activities which strengthened the fellowship between future and present teachers were a pot luck supper, a workshop with visiting teachers as panel members, visitation day for future teachers, and the annual traditional Teacher-Future Teacher dinner.

The club began the year by serving as hostess to the Roanoke Area Federation Planning Meeting. The members enjoyed attending and taking charge of the meeting.

A beautifully decorated float carrying out the theme of homemaking was entered in the Home-Coming Parade. A Christmas party was given to the patients at the Mercy House. The club sponsored a hop, participated in the National F. H. A. Week, and attended the spring Federation Meeting. The two F. H. A. Chapters and the G. A. A. Club had charge of May Day activities.

The club president appeared on a television show, which was sponsored by the Home-making Department.

The Future Homemakers of America is a national organization of pupils studying home-making in junior and senior high schools. Fleming's F. H. A. Club was organized for members of the Eighth Grade who were interested in homemaking.

The main purpose of the club is to improve home life and to help make the world a better place in which to live. The Junior and Senior F. H. A. Clubs worked together on many of the activities in carrying out the purpose of the club.

The colors of the club are red and white; the flower, the red rose. The motto is "Toward New Horizons". The emblem, which has a picture of a house supported by two hands, symbolizes that the future homes of America are in the hands of its youth.

symbol of progress...

As graduation nears, let's take a serious look at the past. We see that education has been largely responsible for the progress of our nation.

Why? Education is PROGRESS.

Today — more than ever before — industry, business and labor, all, know the true values of a good educational system. EDUCATION continues to stand as a true symbol of PROGRESS.

Hi,

It sure has been fun knowing you this year.

I have enjoyed every moment. I have hung in Latin with you this year. I will ~~it~~ always remember lunch time. I hope you enjoyed May day and the Choir concert as much as I did.

I wish you all the luck in the world. Stay as nice as you are and you will go places. I am sure that you will make good in anything you try. I hope to see you a lot this summer.

Thanks for all the chewing gum.

See ya'!

Sure has been nice knowing you these past years. Don't forget all the good times we've had. Stay sweet and cute. Try to be good and I'll see you next year.

Your friend
Rena

This year you've been a just, excuse me kid I forgot the rest, I really just hope you get the best and maybe you'll be the Murray Guest.

Your Friendly Enemy,
Eugene Wellborn.

P. S. I hope you pass Latin.

Dear Sir
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your
